CALPIPE INDUSTRIES EXPANDS DISTRIBUTION

Calconduit and Calbond products now distributed from Calbrite's Hobart, IN facility...

HOBART, IN – Effective July 15, 2016, Calbond and Calconduit products are now distributed from Calpipe's Hobart, Indiana facility. With fully stocked inventories of Calbrite, Calbond, and Calconduit products, the new manufacturing and distribution center will allow for faster order turnarounds, shorter lead times, and expedient service in the Midwest and Northeast regions.

“In order to more quickly serve our customers in the Midwest and Northeast, we are excited to begin distributing Calbond and Calconduit from the Hobart facility,” said Jim Johnson, VP of Sales and Marketing. "It is another example of just how determined Calpipe Industries is to satisfy its customers.”

Features of the new manufacturing and distribution facility include:

- 85,000 square feet of warehouse and office space
- State-of-the art customer training center
- Product development and testing area
- Innovative warehousing and operational methods and processes
